FROM EDITOR'S DESK

“That discipline which corrects the eagerness of worldly passions, which fortifies the heart with virtuous principles, which enlightens the mind with useful knowledge, and furnishes to it matter of enjoyment from within itself, is of more consequence to real felicity than all the provisions which we can make of the goods of fortune.”

-- Robert Bridges

Discipline is a key to success-since ages we believe this. But with the change in society, the faith in this saying is also diminishing. I often hear parents complaining about their children' indiscipline, teachers discussing about how to make students disciplined, employers talking about employees' absenteeism and indiscipline. We all know that day by day life is becoming very competitive and demanding. It is essential to understand that if we want to stand strongly and don't want to be swept off by modern society's challenges, we have to strengthen ourselves through discipline. It is necessary for all ages and all times. There are many attractions which allure students but one must be wise enough to differentiate between right and wrong. Proper guidance from family, teachers, the company of good friends and above all setting targets in life can help a student to abide by discipline in life. Life will always be full of temptations but as a student one has to be self-disciplined.

So, Henceforth we should promise ourselves to be self-disciplined and self-restrained.

Department's First Book

Our department has taken a step ahead with its first publication “Emerging Trends in Management Practices”. Such endeavors are important for the development of faculty and students as well as up gradation of institutional intellectual worth. With the motivation and blessings of Vice Chairman Mr. Aman Sahni, Director General Mr. Justice Bhanwar Singh and Head of the Department Dr. Azad Singh Chhillar, this effort could turn into reality. The hard work and dedication of the entire department made it possible. The next step will be the publication of the first DME Journal of Management from the department in the coming month.

English Literary Association - ELM

Extempore Competition

Students of BBA have recently formed an English Literary Association. Putting their best foot forward, they came together and successfully organized an extempore competition for students of BBA. The event had students from different semesters competing against each other. Faculty members were in attendance as well. The judges for the event were Mrs. Bindu Sharma and Mr. Tarun Samurailatpam. Some of the popular topics were, education, population, parents, PokemonGo, etc. Raksha Srivastava from IInd year came first, followed by Shefali Jain from Ist year in second and Yogita Motwani from Ist year in third position respectively.

With the success of the event, the students are already planning the next event which will be scheduled soon.

Importance of Soft Skills: A Glimpse

The department organized a Guest Lecture on the 22nd of February, 2017 at Nelson Mandela Auditorium, DME Campus, Noida, in the morning session.

The resource person was Mr. Ankur Jain, an expert at T.I.M.E. Education, India's leading test preparation option for CAT and other MBA examinations. He is a graduate in Business Studies from Delhi University and Masters in Business Management from MDI Gurgaon. He has a rich and varied experience of over 15 years in IT, Outsourcing and Education industries and has a passion for career counseling.

Mr. Jain emphasized the importance of Soft Skills in the world of business and management studies. He elaborated on the crucial points such as teamwork, leadership skills, problem solving and emotional intelligence. He also provided the students with details regarding the process of writing an effective resume. After a second successful lecture, the students and faculty requested for similar lectures in the near future.

Results to be announced by University

The results of the end semester examination conducted in December 2016 will be announced in March, 2017. As always, the prospect of finding out the scores of any examination can be terrifying and extremely stressful. However, we would like the students to take it in their stride and always push ahead whichever way the results turn out – whether it is extremely good or not satisfactory. As we often read, failure is the best motivator for our future endeavors. Best of luck!

FLY Birthday Celebration

The ongoing celebration of birthdays of faculty members for the month of December and January was held on 18th Feb, 2017 with thanks to the FLY team members. The celebration was attended by Hon'ble Mr. Justice Bhanwar Singh, Prof. Vikram Dutt, Prof. Azad Singh Chillar and faculty members from all respective departments.

The event was anchored by Bandana Bawri and the presence of the entire faculty team made the event livelier as all cheered for the success and bright future for the birthday stars.

The efforts of the FLY members were much appreciated and all await more successful birthday celebration in the future.

Active listening - The key to Successful Communication

"The art of conversation lies in listening."

-Malcom Forbes

In today's high-tech, high-speed, high-stress world, communication is more important than ever, yet we seem to devote less time to really listen to one another. Genuine listening has become a rare gift—the gift of time. Listening is not something that comes naturally or easily for most of us, however; it is a skill that must be cultivated and practiced. When it comes to great speakers versus good listeners, only 82% of the population would prefer to be a great speaker. The other 18% prefers to be a good listener. So, the best way to get along with others is to listen to what they have to say. By 'listen' I mean what is called 'active listening. Active listening means that we make a conscious and concerted effort to get fully engage with the speaker. Active listening is the difference between simply hearing, and listening with the intent to truly understand.

Becoming an effective communicator is a dynamic process and lifetime pursuit. Active listening builds strong relationships and, while it may not come naturally to many of us, it's an invaluable communication skill. Becoming an excellent listener will take determination and practice and it will be well worth it in both your professional and personal life.

Tip:

If you're finding it particularly difficult to concentrate on what someone is saying, try repeating their words mentally as they say them – this will reinforce their message and help you stay focused.

DME Dash

DME DASH: DME Dash is a software & App that manages and integrates different applications of the institute to automate many functions related to technology, services and human resources.

This software keeps a track of all functions of institute like attendance, communication, examination, admissions, assignments and notes, syllabus, accounts, transport, time table etc. in a single database, application and user interface. This provides an integrated view of all the institutional functions to facilitate management, faculty and students. DME DASH helps the institute to develop a transparent and automated system to facilitate easy decision making.

This application is beneficial for parents too. Parent can keep track of the ward's attendance, time table, fee details and performance in class & exams. Faculty members can communicate with each other, students & their parents as well. Faculty can provide notes, assignments and tutorials etc. to students. DME DASH is eco friendly and reduces paper work.

Dr APJ Abdul Kalam quotes for young students

- “My message, especially to young people is to have courage to think differently, courage to invent, to travel the unexplored path, courage to discover the impossible and to conquer the problems and succeed. These are great qualities that they must work towards. This is my message to the young people.”
- “While children are struggling to be unique, the world around them is trying all means to make them look like everybody else.”
- “For me, there are two types of people: the young and the experienced.”
- “One of the very important characteristics of a student is to question. Let the students ask questions.”
- “Once your mind stretches to a new level it never goes back to its original dimension”
- “Science has revealed that the human body is made up of millions and millions of atoms... For example, I am made up of 5.8×10^{27} atoms.”
- Don't take rest after your first victory because if you fail in second, more lips are waiting to say that your first victory was just luck.”
- “Failure will never overtake me if my definition to succeed is strong enough”.
- If you fail, never give up because F.A.I.L. means “First Attempt In Learning”.
- End is not the end, if fact E.N.D. means “Effort Never Dies.”
