Good Citizen Drive

Delhi Metropolitan Education (DME) Law School, Noida, with the help of the Traffic Police Department, Uttar Pradesh, conducted the “I am a Good Citizen” Drive on Friday. The Students of DME Law School were accompanied by faculty members, namely Ms Surbhi Arora, Ms Vaishnavi Srivastava and Mr Sanjeev Ghanghash, to Anand Vihar East Delhi to felicitate the commuters who adhered to traffic rules. The objective of the Drive was to appreciate and honour those citizens who exhibited essential but often overlooked traits of a responsible citizen. In a society which is quick to penalize a bad deed, being appreciated for adhering to basic traffic rules was a novelty for the commuters. They were gifted planted saplings.

On the other hand, this Drive solidified their resolve to adhere to Fundamental Duties among law students. The Drive proved that a synchronous collaboration between public officials and citizens could make the world a better place. Prof. Dr. Ravi Kant Swami (Director, DME Law School) and Prof. Dr. Rashmi Khorana Nagpal (Dean, DME Law School) appreciated the students' efforts.
